*Before making a General Power of Attorney, read this CAUTION:

Making a General Power of Attorney (GPOA) is an important action with serious consequences. Your GPOA gives someone else the legal authority to act on your behalf—to do anything that you could do. With a GPOA, your agent can (for example) rent or buy a house with your money, borrow money that you must repay, sell your car, sue someone for you, or remove all funds from your bank account. Your agent can legally bind you. While a GPOA can be very helpful, it can also be very dangerous. Regarding using a GPOA, consider:

- Limit the power you give away to only that necessary. If you need someone to perform only specific tasks for you, then you don't need a GPOA. Get a Special Power of Attorney—one that will authorize your agent to perform only those specific tasks. We can help you prepare one.
- Limit the duration of your Power of Attorney to no longer than 1 year or a shorter period. Don't set the expiration date longer than you will need your agent's services, and don't give the Power of Attorney before it will be needed.
- Make sure your agent is someone you can trust. If you lose trust in your agent, talk with a legal assistance attorney about revoking your Power of Attorney.
- Don't hesitate to talk to a legal assistance attorney if you have any questions.
